

Sanjana Jain Joins Modern Executive Solutions from McKinsey & Co

Enhances integrated offering with further growth of the strategic intelligence and organizational enablement practice

Atlanta, Oct. 4, 2021 – Modern Executive Solutions, an innovative talent organization, announced today that Sanjana Jain has joined the firm as Executive Director. She will support the growth of the firm’s organizational strategy capabilities as Modern continues to provide integrated talent solutions to support clients’ DEI objectives globally.

Modern provides an integrated offering that delivers greater value and a better experience to client and candidates. To support these efforts, the firm has built a Strategic Intelligence and Organizational Enablement Practice within an Executive Search company. By utilizing real time, competitive information, and insights, Modern advises clients on how to leverage their talent strategy and organizational design to meet their organizations’ diversity objectives.

“Sanjana brings expertise in leadership development, capability-building, and organizational effectiveness, coupled with a deep passion for talent strategy and DEI,” said Mark Oppenheimer, CEO of Modern Executive Solutions. “We are excited to have her onboard as we continue to evolve a truly integrated talent solution.”

Jain joins Modern from McKinsey & Company where she was a Senior Engagement Manager with the Organization Practice. In that role, she served Fortune 500 companies at the intersection of digital transformation and talent development by helping client leaders develop new mindsets, behaviors, skills, and knowledge.
